Sentence

1 (In open court; case called)

2 MS. CASTELLANO: Good afternoon, your Honor.

3 Gina Castellano for the government.

4 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

5 MR. OSUNA: Robert Osuna for Mr. Cepeda.

6 Good afternoon, your Honor.

7 MR. CAMPISI: Richard Campisi also with Mr. Cepeda,
8 with the Office of Robert Osuna.

9 THE COURT: Good afternoon, counsel. And good
10 afternoon, Mr. Cepeda. Please be seated.

11 We're here today for sentencing in United States v.
12 Henry Cepeda, 14 CR 517.

13 In preparation for today's proceeding I have reviewed
14 the presentence report which is dated February 17, 2015.

15 I've also received and reviewed the following
16 additional submissions. I have the defendant's submission
17 which is dated February 26, 2015. It includes exhibits at the 18 back. Exhibit A is a letter from Mr. Cepeda's wife. Exhibit B
19 is a series of certificates of achievement from the Bureau of 20 Prisons or the MCC and the like. Exhibit C is a letter from a 21 fellow inmate of Mr. Cepeda's who is working with him on his 22 educational classes, his GED classes. Exhibit D is a birth
23 certificate of Mr. Cepeda's son. Exhibit E is a marriage
24 certificate of Mr. Cepeda. Exhibit F is a news clipping
25 related to the arrest of Mr. Cepeda's father. Exhibit G is an

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 affidavit of paternity from his father. And Exhibit H consists
2 of a series of high school records of Mr. Cepeda's.

3 Then in addition I have the prosecutor's submission
4 which is dated March 3, 2015.

5 Let me confirm that you've received each other's 6 submissions and to inquire as to whether there are any 7 additional submissions that I should have in front of me for 8 purposes of sentencing.

9 MR. OSUNA: Your Honor, there's nothing from our side.
10 We've received Mr. Kamaraju's submission and are ready to 11 proceed.

12 MS. CASTELLANO: Nothing else from the government.

13 THE COURT: Let's turn to the presentence report.
14 Mr. Osuna, I know that you have, but let me confirm for the 15 record that you've read the presentence report and discussed it
16 with your client.

17 MR. OSUNA: Yes, your Honor, we have.

18 THE COURT: And Mr. Cepeda may I confirm that you've 19 had an opportunity to review the presentence report and go over 20 it with your attorney.

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have.

22 THE COURT: And the opportunity to raise any errors in 23 the report with him? Have you had that opportunity?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Osuna, you had noted some errors in

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 the report that were or were not transmitted to -- these were
2 minor things, I believe -- any errors in the report that were
3 not transmitted to probation?

4 MR. OSUNA: No, your Honor. There were just two 5 minor, minor errors. Nothing that would stop us from 6 proceeding here today.

7 THE COURT: Anything you want corrected for 8 purposes -- since the report will go to BOP?

9 MR. OSUNA: We should just correct his home address
10 where he will be living if he's on supervised release.

11 THE COURT: Remind me of the page.

12 MR. OSUNA: It's on page eleven, paragraph 56.
13 Instead of apartment 25C it should be apartment 25D.

14 THE COURT: Thank you. We'll make that correction.
15 Page 11, paragraph 56, changing 25C to 25D.

16 Anything else?

17 MR. OSUNA: Judge while we're at it, paragraph 50 on 18 page ten, his mother's name is Janet not Janice. J-A-N-E-T.
19 That would be all.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 Paragraph?

22 MR. OSUNA: I believe it's paragraph 50, Judge, on 23 page ten.

24 THE COURT: Yes. Changing Janice to Janet.

25 My deputy noted too, I believe, so on the -- well the

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 first page of the PSR itself or the second page, if you include
2 the cover letter, for offense, it lists the offense as Count
3 One. I believe it's Count Two.

4 Do I have that right, Mr. Osuna?

5 MR. OSUNA: Yes. That would be correct.

6 THE COURT: So we'll make that change to the report
7 and I think that error was just repeated on page 18 when
8 probation lists the supervised release terms and the custody
9 terms, it says Count One but it's -- and the fine, it lists
10 Count Two that Mr. Cepeda pled to. So we'll make that change.

11 Let me ask, Mr. Osuna. Other than my matters that 12 we've just discussed, and putting aside for a moment the 13 calculation of the Sentencing Guidelines, are there any 14 objections to the report regarding the factual accuracy?

15 MR. OSUNA: No, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: And let me ask Ms. Castellano the same
17 question.

18 MS. CASTELLANO: Nothing, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: I did want to ask in the government's 20 submission, I know you're not the author, Ms. Castellano, but 21 page three, the paragraph right at the top it says Criminal 22 History Category III but I believe everyone agrees it's 23 Criminal History Category II.

24 MS. CASTELLANO: That's correct, your Honor. And it's 25 correct in the next paragraph.

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 Hearing no objections to the factual accuracy of the 3 presentence report, the Court will adopt the factual recitation
4 set forth in the presentence report. The report will be made
5 part of the record in this matter and placed under seal. If an 6 appeal is taken, counsel on appeal may have access to the 7 sealed report without further application to this Court.

8 Turning to the Sentencing Guidelines. As counsel is 9 aware, I am no longer required to follow the United States
10 Sentencing Guidelines but I am still required to consider the 11 applicable guidelines in imposing sentence and must therefore 12 accurately calculate the sentencing guideline range. In this 13 case there was a plea agreement to which the parties stipulated
14 to a particular calculation in the Sentencing Guidelines.

15 May I ask both counsel if I'm correct that the 16 calculation in the presentence report is in accord with the 17 agreement and if there are any objections.

18 Ms. Castellano?

19 MS. CASTELLANO: It's the same, your Honor. No
20 objections.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Osuna?

22 MR. OSUNA: That's correct, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Thank you. Based on the parties'
24 agreement and the absence of objection and my independent
25 evaluation of the Sentencing Guidelines, I accept the guideline

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 calculation in the PSR.

2 Accordingly, using the November 1, 2014 edition of the 3 Sentencing Guidelines, I find that the offense level is 10.
4 Criminal History Category is II. And the guideline range is 8
5 to 14 months.

6 In the plea agreement both parties also agreed not to 7 seek a departure from the guideline sentence. We'll talk about
8 variance in a moment. But just with respect to departure do I
9 have that correct?

10 MR. OSUNA: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Nevertheless I have considered whether 12 there's an appropriate basis for departure from the advisory 13 range within the guideline system and the Court does not find
14 any grounds warranting a departure under the guidelines.

15 So with that, I'm happy to hear statements from 16 counsel.

17 Mr. Osuna.

18 MR. OSUNA: Thank you, very much, your Honor.

19 You know, when I met Mr. Cepeda and he relayed to me
20 his life story --

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I apologize. I want -- I
22 always want to give defendant counsel a second opportunity to 23 respond so I said Mr. Osuna but I actually met Ms. Castellano.

24 MS. CASTELLANO: I don't have anything to add to our 25 March 3 letter.

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Osuna.

2 MR. OSUNA: Thank you, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: My apologizes.

4 MR. OSUNA: When Mr. Cepeda relayed to me his story
5 that he was brought to this country as a very young child and 6 always thought that he was a United States citizen up until he 7 reached age 18 and asked his mom for his paper work in order to 8 get a job. I really identified with that because myself I'm 9 the child of first -- first generation American. My parents
10 were naturalized citizens, but we spoke Spanish at home. When 11 I was a little kid, I used to ask them: Are you sure I'm a 12 citizen? Are you sure? They would say: Why do you keep 13 asking that? I was like because I would see the television and 14 see the things that people were really going through. And,
15 obviously, when I reached adulthood, and of course I'm 16 comfortable I'm a citizen, but as a child when you grow up with 17 immigrant parents you always have this nagging thought in the 18 back of your head. And I thought I was crazy thinking that 19 until I met Mr. Cepeda. I was like holy smoke, all those years
20 you had that in your head. And here is an individual going 21 through just that.

22 And when he told me his circumstance, he was sitting 23 at the MCC, the little counsel booth, he told me he was born to 24 an eleven-year-old mother and his father was a convicted
25 murderer. And I was like wow, I thought I'd heard everything.

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 I really did. Because you do this 20 years you really do hear
2 a lot of stories. That was a first. I hadn't heard that. I
3 hadn't heard someone being born to a child who was the victim
4 of a heinous crime by a guy who is serving a sentence for 5 murder.

6 We spoke a lot more. We spoke about the circumstances
7 that brought him here. We spoke about accepting 8 responsibility. And we spoke about going forward, and what we 9 would need to do to go forward. I had extensive conversations
10 with Mr. Kamaraju, who is not here today, who really took into 11 consideration a presentence memorandum that I submitted to the 12 government that would allow my client to plead guilty in a way
13 that would allow him at least a fighting chance in front of 14 immigration later on.

15 I'll be very honest with the Court. If I walk out of 16 here with a sentence of 365 days or more, that's an aggravated
17 felony, and he's automatically removed from this country.
18 That's it. I'm not going to sugarcoat it. I'm not going to 19 lie. I'm not going to be cute. I need a sentence today of 20 less than 364 days. That will allow Mr. Cepeda to end up
21 standing in front of an immigration judge at 201 Varick Street
22 where they will consider whether eligible, whether he 23 qualifies -- we know he's eligible, but whether he merits
24 cancellation of removal. The judges there are very attuned.
25 Judge Page, Judge Videla, they're very attuned, they're very

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 fair. And I trust in their judgment as to Mr. Cepeda, that 2 they'll do the right decision. The family has told me that
3 they don't have the financial means to hire an attorney there.
4 I spoke to his mom. She has retained The Immigrant Defense
5 Project that would represent him in Immigration Court should he 6 remain eligible for cancellation of removal. I told the 7 mother, of course, I would work with them in any way possible
8 to give them the information that they would need at 201 Varick
9 to make that determination.

10 I ask the Court to consider, as the government and 11 Mr. Kamaraju certainly did, that his fraud here was for food
12 stamps. It wasn't for people buying watches. I started off as 13 a prosecutor in Bronx County. We used to get these night
14 arraignments of these women who were shoplifting Similac. I
15 was like good grief, we're locking these people up for stealing
16 babyfood. I get it. It's a crime. But as a human being I
17 have to take recognition of that.

18 In this case we have a young guy who was stealing food
19 stamps. Food. So I ask the Court in sentencing him to 20 consider that it is a fraud. It is a crime. For which he's 21 accepted responsibility. But it's not a crime of greed. It's 22 not a crime of excess. It's a crime of -- I don't even have 23 the words for it.

24 I know he's assessed guideline points for criminal
25 history. I did look carefully. And none of those sentences

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 are for criminal convictions. They are all violations. Under
2 New York law he doesn't have any convictions. There's two
3 possessions of marijuana violations and there's a disorderly
4 conduct. So under New York law he has no convictions at all.
5 This will be his first conviction.

6 Under the guidelines a sentence assesses points. So
7 whether it's a sentence for a violation, a sentence assesses
8 points. But he has no criminal convictions, Judge.

9 He does have a great deal of family support. See all 10 the folks here. There's his wife, of course. His aunts. His 11 aunts are the ones who raised him because he couldn't let his 12 mother raise him. They couldn't. She was a child herself.
13 One of his aunts is here. Her name is Annette Sanchez. And 14 she was speaking to me outside and explained to me how close he 15 is with his cousin. She has a special needs son who is 21
16 years old. She was telling me how my client would bring him
17 out to McDonald's, would help him in his activities of daily
18 living. She assures the Court that were my client be able 19 to -- deal with that process with Immigration Court, but if he 20 does have a future in this country, that that's probably what 21 he is going to go back to do. She's very close with him. She 22 can provide him a job. She has a real estate office. She 23 indicated that he has helped her in the past showing
24 apartments.

25 Your Honor, I would ask the Court to sentence him --

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 it's very rare that we're in agreement; the government,
2 probation, and defense counsel. Normally a big fight at the 3 sentence. This is one of the rare cases where we're all in 4 agreement. The government, I really thank them. I thank
5 Ms. Castellano, certainly Mr. Kamaraju, that allowed my client
6 to plead guilty in a manner that would allow him a fighting
7 chance across the street.

8 I would ask the Court to impose an eight-month
9 sentence, which is actually -- today he would have served eight
10 months. But I would ask the Court to impose that sentence.
11 And if the Court would not be inclined, I'm going to ask the 12 Court do not go above 364 days. I would like my client to have 13 the chance to work with The Immigrant Defense Project and at 14 least be eligible for a fighting chance at immigration.

15 Thank you very much, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Osuna.

17 Mr. Cepeda, you don't have to make a statement but if 18 you'd like to you may do so now.

19 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor --

20 THE COURT: Just ask you to pull up the microphone and 21 take your time, sir.

22 THE DEFENDANT: I would like to apologize to my wife,
23 who is here, helped me go through this with my child without my 24 support. I would like to thank the government for giving me
25 this plea agreement. And I just apologize. I'm sorry.

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Cepeda.

2 Counsel, is there any reason why sentence cannot be
3 imposed at this time?

4 MR. OSUNA: No, your Honor.

5 MS. CASTELLANO: No, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: As I have stated the guideline range
7 applicable to this case is 8 to 14 months imprisonment.

8 Under the Supreme Court's decision in Booker and it's 9 progeny, the guideline range is only one factor that the Court
10 must consider in deciding the appropriate sentence. The Court
11 is also required to consider the other factors that are set 12 forth in a statute called 18 U.S.C. Section 3553(a). These 13 include the nature and circumstances of the offense and the 14 history and characteristics of the defendant; the need for the 15 sentence imposed to reflect the seriousness of the offense, to 16 promote respect for the law, to provide just punishment for the 17 offense, to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct, to 18 protect the public from further crimes of the defendant, and to 19 provide the defendant with needed education or vocational 20 training, care, or other treatment. I'm to take into account
21 the kinds of sentences available, the guidelines range, any 22 pertinent policy statement, the need to avoid unwarranted
23 sentence disparities, the need to provide restitution. I am
24 also required to impose a sentence sufficient but no greater
25 than necessary to comply with the purposes I've just described.

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 I have given substantial thought and attention to the
2 appropriate sentence in this case in light of the Section
3 3553(a) factors and the appropriate purposes of sentencing as
4 reflected in that statute. I'm not going to hide the ball
5 here. I am going to sentence, I'll tell you upfront, I'm going
6 to sentence Mr. Cepeda to eight months, which is the bottom of 7 his guideline range.

8 I do think a guideline sentence is appropriate.
9 Although, as Mr. Osuna said, Mr. Cepeda was stealing food in 10 the sense of stealing food stamps, but it is a serious offense, 11 the fraud that was committed here. It does damage to our 12 welfare system, to our taxpayers. It takes away that food from 13 those who are qualified. And I do believe incarceration is 14 necessary given the seriousness of the offense. And Mr. Cepeda
15 has now had several minor brushes with the law and I do think 16 it's important for deterrence of both Mr. Cepeda and others to 17 have an incarceratory sentence in light of this violation of 18 the law.

19 That said, I am confident that Mr. Cepeda is not a
20 dangerous criminal. He's not a violent person. He has faced 21 truly enormous difficulties in his life. Moreover, he has 22 accepted responsibility for his actions. He has the support of 23 his family, and I appreciate your presence here today, many of 24 you who made the effort to come to show that support. I know
25 that you'll provide it to Mr. Cepeda upon his release.

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 He's using his time while incarcerated to better
2 himself. I hope he continues on that productive path. And for
3 all of these reasons, and taking into account the Section
4 3553(a) factors, a sentence at the bottom of the guideline
5 range is clearly appropriate.

6 So I will now state formally the sentence I intend to 7 impose. Mr. Cepeda, will you please rise.

8 It is the judgment of the Court that you be 9 sentenced -- that you be sentenced to a term of eight months,
10 to be followed by a period of one year of supervised release.

11 You may be seated.

12 During your term of supervised release the standard
13 conditions of supervised release shall apply. In addition,
14 you'll be subject to the following mandatory conditions. You
15 shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime. You
16 shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. You shall 17 not possess a firearm or destructive device.

18 I will be imposing a special condition requiring drug
19 treatment and testing. So I'm suspending the mandatory
20 condition as a result of the special condition.

21 You shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as 22 directed by the probation office.

23 In addition, you must meet the following special
24 conditions. You'll provide the probation officer with access
25 to any requested financial information. You shall not incur

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without
2 the approval of the probation officer unless you are in 3 compliance with the installment payment schedule.

4 You will participate in a program approved by the 5 United States probation office which may include testing to 6 determine whether you've reverted to using drugs or abusing
7 alcohol. The Court authorizes the release of available drug
8 treatment evaluations and reports to the substance abuse
9 treatment provider as approved by the probation officer. You
10 will be required to contribute to the costs of services
11 rendered, copayment, in an amount determined by the probation
12 officer based on the ability to pay or the availability of 13 third party payment.

14 You are to report to the nearest probation office
15 within 72 hours of release from custody.

16 You shall obey the immigration laws and comply with 17 the directives of the immigration authorities.

18 And I do recommend that you be supervised in your 19 district of residence.

20 I will waive the fine because I don't believe you have 21 the ability to pay the fine or it will interfere with your 22 restitution payments.

23 Ms. Castellano, restitution and forfeiture?

24 MS. CASTELLANO: Yes, your Honor. In the plea
25 agreement the defendant admitted the forfeiture allegation in

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 the amount of $4,810.79.

2 THE COURT: So is the government seeking both
3 forfeiture and restitution?

4 MS. CASTELLANO: I have a proposed order of 5 restitution, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: So for the same amount, same monies?

7 MS. CASTELLANO: Yes.

8 THE COURT: It is further the judgment of this Court
9 that Mr. Cepeda pay restitution in the amount of $4,810.79.
10 And you will make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C.
11 Section 3663(a), payable to the Clerk of the U.S. District
12 Court for disbursement to the New York City Department of Human 13 Resources as is outlined on page 21 of the presentence report
14 and in accordance with the installment payment plan contained
15 on page 21 of the report. The requirement of interest under 18
16 U.S.C. section 3664(f)(3) will be waived in light of your 17 financial circumstances as set forth in the report.

18 I'm imposing a mandatory special assessment of $100
19 which shall be due immediately.

20 And as reflected in the -- I'm sorry. Ms. Castellano,
21 do I have a forfeiture order?

22 MS. CASTELLANO: I have one here. Your Honor, may I
23 pass it up?

24 THE COURT: Yes.

25 This is the order of restitution, which I will sign.

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 Forfeiture was admitted at the time of the plea. The Court
2 finds that the defendant is to forfeit to the United States
3 4,810.79 which represents the proceeds obtained directly or 4 indirectly as a result of the criminal activity.

5 Ms. Castellano, is the government going to put in a
6 forfeiture order as well?

7 MS. CASTELLANO: We weren't planning to do that, your 8 Honor, but happy to do so if necessary.

9 THE COURT: I made the oral order and it's consistent
10 with the admission of forfeiture. So I'll leave it to the 11 government.

12 MS. CASTELLANO: Thank you, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Does either counsel know of any legal 14 reason why the sentence should not be imposed as stated?

15 MS. CASTELLANO: No, your Honor.

16 MR. OSUNA: No, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Sentence as stated is imposed. I find the 18 sentence is sufficient but not greater than necessary to 19 satisfy the sentencing purposes I described earlier.

20 Mr. Cepeda, when you are released on supervised 21 release you'll have the continuing guidance and support of the 22 probation department. Take advantage of these resources as the 23 people in probation are committed to helping you succeed. That 24 said, I have to caution you that you must strictly comply with 25 all of the conditions of your supervised release. If you are

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 brought back before me for a violation of those conditions I
2 may sentence you to another term of imprisonment. I'm
3 confident that won't be the case. But do work with probation.

4 Any applications, Mr. Osuna, regarding --

5 MR. OSUNA: Judge, I've had this happen a few times
6 before. Actually the --

7 THE COURT: When did you say -- how long has he been 8 in?

9 MR. OSUNA: He actually has eight months in today. I
10 had this happen in front of Judge Cedarbaum recently where my 11 client was getting a sentence that was equal to time served and 12 the marshals indicated to me that if they don't have an order
13 that says actual time served, that then he goes back to jail
14 and they have to calculate his time through Washington, which 15 takes about four weeks. So they end up doing about another 16 month in jail. What we did in front of Judge Cedarbaum was 17 actually just handwrite an order. And she signed it right
18 there. I did take the liberty of preparing an order, in the 19 utmost of opiumism this morning, that says sentenced to eight 20 months which is equal to time served. If you look at his 21 presentence report, it indicates he was arrested on July 10.
22 So today would be 239 days.

23 THE COURT: Ms. Castellano, do you have a view?

24 So if I were formally giving a time-served sentence I
25 would sign an order so that he could be released. I've given

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 an eight-month sentence. If the government agrees that that's
2 time served -- usually it's left to BOP to do the calculation.
3 What's the government's view?

4 MS. CASTELLANO: Your Honor, I haven't done the actual
5 counting of the days but I think on Mr. Osuna's -- taking
6 Mr. Osuna, who has done that, I think the government is fine
7 with that.

8 THE COURT: So I'll sentence him to eight months and 9 indicate that that is time served, and then I'll take the 10 order.

11 MR. OSUNA: Very well, your Honor. I'm just going to 12 show a copy to the government.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. OSUNA: May I hand up a copy to the Court?

15 THE COURT: You may.

16 Ms. Castellano, are there remaining counts and 17 underlying indictments to be dismissed at this time?

18 MS. CASTELLANO: Yes, your Honor. The government
19 moves to dismiss Counts One, Three, and Four of the indictment.

20 THE COURT: They are dismissed. Thank you.

21 Consistent with this. The order reads, "It's hereby 22 ordered that Mr. Cepeda is sentenced to eight months
23 incarceration for the instant indictment and that as of today
24 the sentence is equal to time served, which I am signing. I'll 25 get my deputy to make copies, please.

F369CEPS

Sentence

1 With that, counsel is there anything else?

2 Mr. Cepeda, I see no basis for an appeal but I'm
3 required to inform all defendants of their appellate rights.
4 To the extent that you've not given up your right to appeal
5 your conviction and sentence through your plea of guilty and 6 the agreement that you entered into with the government in 7 connection with that plea, you have the right to appeal. If 8 you're unable to pay the costs of an appeal you may apply for 9 leave to appeal in forma pauperis which means that you wouldn't 10 have to pay the costs of an appeal. The notice of an appeal
11 must be filed within 14 days of the judgment of conviction.

12 Counsel, is there anything else I can address at this 13 time?

14 MR. OSUNA: No, your Honor. Thank you very much.

15 MS. CASTELLANO: No, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Good luck to you Mr. Cepeda. We're 17 adjourned.
